The Xbox Ambassadors Holidays were an opportunity for the community to showcase their creativity and love for both gaming and their holidays! The contest encouraged participants to share their favorite stories and experiences during the holiday season, whether it was a heartwarming tale of friendship forged through gaming, their favorite holiday dishes or game characters that represented them.

Let’s take a closer look at some of the top entries that stood out during this holiday. Without further ado, we are proud to share these top spotlightees:

ijustwantamocha	I’ve made a Christmas beanie, a snow man and a penguin. ♥

AngeredFiber865	I made a Christmas tree in Minecraft Java

PalmettoBling	Wife got me a felt Emmet Otter for Christmas from Emmet Otter’s Jug-Band Christmas because I love that movie, and so he now hangs at the top of the tree every year.

Mistress Sara	My tree decor varies every year depending on who is coming over. This year I went for a small tree and put my little plushies on it. Had the Kinectables polar bear (lowere right) on guard with the Coke bear (lower left) and penguin (center, wearing scarf and white beanie hat). Sometimes the Misfit Toys are around the tree.

Mish Manners	Me and my player 2 (now my husband!!!) Put up our first Christmas tree. We just got married on 9th December 2023 ❤ We even have custom baubles We got some of these as a wedding present!

briccva	Quote: “I really just want to be able to get into any one of the many games on my list. Best way I can think of enjoying some much deserved time off. Definitely gotta top the achievements leaderboards for the last month of the year. Game on everyone!”

Explodin Budgie
Grumpy0lLady	My Snoopy, which I have had since 1976 in his Christmas jammies. Merry Christmas all!

Thank you to all the Passionate Ambassadors around the world who participated in this activity and shared their stories. Your contributions inspire us to continue fostering an inclusive and welcoming environment for all gamers.

We encourage you to continue participating in these events and fun activities! Happy gaming!
